

MEDICAL REPORT

Patient Information

- Patient Name: John Doe
- Age: 35
- Gender: Male
- Date: 2026-04-30

Chief Complaints:

- Fever for 3 days
- Mild cough
- Fatigue

Vital Signs:

- Temperature: 101.2°F
- Blood Pressure: 120/80 mmHg
- Heart Rate: 88 bpm
- Oxygen Saturation: 97%

Laboratory Results:

- Hemoglobin: 13.5 g/dL
- WBC Count: 9,000 cells/mcL
- Platelets: 250,000 /mcL
- Blood Sugar (Fasting): 95 mg/dL

Additional Tests (if required):

- Chest X-ray: Normal
- COVID-19 Test: Negative
- Urine Analysis: Normal

Diagnosis:

- Viral Fever

Prescribed Medication:

- Paracetamol 500 mg (twice daily)
- Cough Syrup (10 ml twice daily)
- Multivitamin tablets (once daily)

Lifestyle & Care Advice:

- Take adequate rest
- Drink plenty of fluids
- Maintain light diet

Doctor's Remarks:

Patient is stable. No signs of severe infection. Symptoms are consistent with a viral illness. Recovery expected within a few days with proper rest and medication.

Follow-Up Instructions:

- Review after 5 days if symptoms persist
- Immediate consultation if fever exceeds 103°F or breathing difficulty occurs

Doctor Information:

- Doctor Name: Dr. A. Sharma
- Department: General Medicine
- Signature: _____